Founding Hopes

The charter of Massachusetts, granted by Charles I, contains an expression of the hope that the settlers to whom it is granted “may win and incite the natives of the country to the knowledge and obedience of the only true God and Savior of mankind and the Christian faith, which is our royal intention, and the adventurer’s free profession, and the principal end of this plantation.” The first seal of Massachusetts represents an Indian giving utterance to the words, “Come over and help us.”

Washington’s Prayer for Nation

“Almighty God: We make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the heads of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government and entertain a brother-affection and love for one another and for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large.

“And finally, that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion and with a humble imitation of whose example in these things we can ever hope to be a happy nation.

“Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Liberty cannot be established without morality, nor morality without faith. Alexis de Tocqueville

Liberty is not the power of doing what we like, but the right to do what we ought. Lord Acton

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof" Leviticus 25:10 These words are inscribed on the United States' Liberty Bell.

Just as our soldiers are giving their lives to preserve our freedom, we should be just as willing to give ourselves to the cause of spreading the Gospel of Liberty to all men everywhere!

"If Jesus Christ be God and died for me," said the great British athlete C. T. Studd, "then no sacrifice can be too great for me to make for him." Isaac Watts' great hymn expresses the same sentiment: "Love so amazing, so divine, demands my heart, my life, my all."

Let us once more resolve to do just that: to give our effort, our time, our resources, our sons, and daughters to gospel ministry both here and abroad.
